

TOWN READY TO GREET PAUL REVERE

FIVE AUTOS INVOLVED IN SAME ACCIDENT YESTERDAY MORNING

One Car Totally Wrecked in Odd Crash — Driver is Still in Symmes Arlington Hospital — Woman Is Given Medical Attention — Others Shaken Up — Local Woman Seriously Injured in Cambridge Accident

Two people were injured and others badly shaken up when five automobiles were involved in the same accident here yesterday morning. One of the cars was practically a total wreck. The accident occurred opposite the home of Francis Beagen, 355 Summer street, Arlington, near the boulevard.

Mr. Beagen, whose car was untouched in the mishap, was heading toward Arlington and about to make a left turn into his driveway. Another car, owned and operated by Maurice J. O'Connor, 27 Highland avenue, Arlington, was following close behind and came to a stop in order to allow Beagen to turn. Just at this time, a sedan owned and operated by Edward J. Ross, 45 Lafayette street, Everett, coming in the direction of Arlington, crashed into the rear end of O'Connor's car. Ross was said by witnesses to be going at a good rate of speed and was unable to apply his brakes in time to avoid the terrific impact.

Coupled with a high rate of speed, the force of the crash caused Ross' car to bounce back and it shot across the road to the left of the road. As the heavy sedan bounced back it crashed into another sedan owned and operated by James W. Thomas, 428 Broadway, Somerville, who was going in the opposite direction toward Lexington.

The driver of a fifth car, who happened to be following Thomas' sedan quickly sensed the situation and turned off the road in order to avoid the tangle. In doing so, the car escaped hitting the other automobiles but the tire on the left front wheel blew out as the car struck a ledge on the side of the road. The operator of the fifth car did not reveal his name.

The four wheels on Ross' car snapped and the car was damaged beyond repair. It was impossible to tow this car away although others were so slightly damaged that it was possible to drive or tow them away yesterday afternoon. Ross was badly injured and rushed to the Symmes Arlington Hospital where he was given medical attention by Dr. Lawley. His left eye was cut and left cheek bone severely fractured in addition to other external injuries. His condition was reported as "fair" at the hospital last night.

Mrs. Isabella Carlton, 428 Broadway, Somerville, who was riding with Thomas received injuries to her face and had to be given medical attention. Others in the crash were shaken up. Officer Keaney of the Arlington police department investigated. The crash left considerable debris which had to be cleared from the highway by employees of the public works department yesterday afternoon.

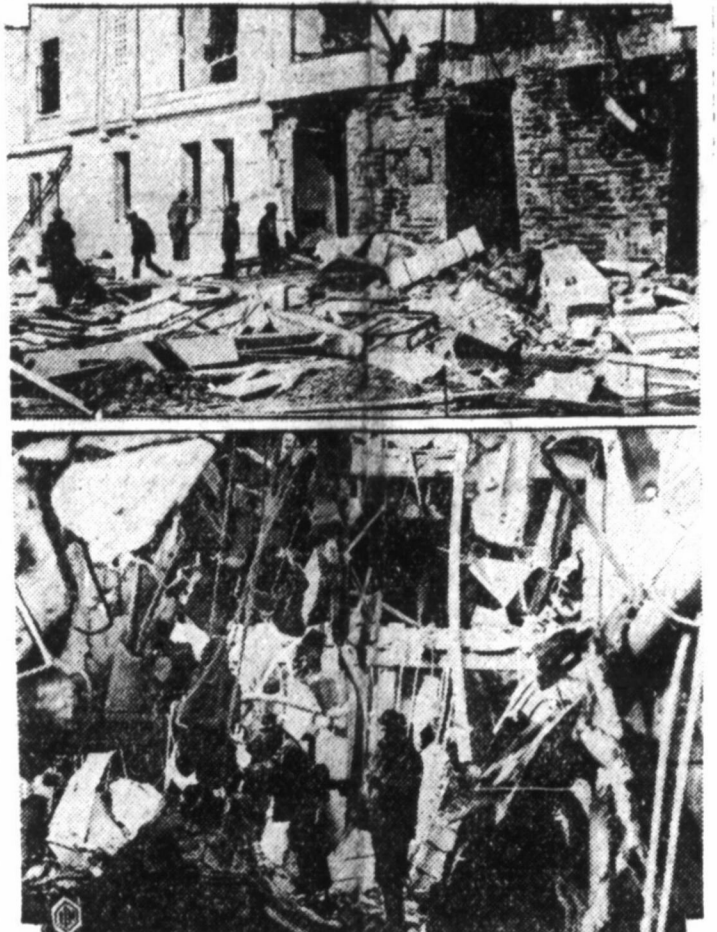

Officials To Be Entertained By Woman's Club

Elaborate plans have been made by the Arlington Woman's Club to entertain a large number of club presidents next Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Carl W. Schrader, president of the Massachusetts State Federation and Mrs. Nathaniel Smith, chairman of the Seventh District will be the guests of honor at this unusual meeting.

The full details of the afternoon's program are in charge of Mrs. Edith Winn, a past president of the local organization. Mrs. Ralph Currier, chairman of the music committee, will present Gertrude Ehrhart, soprano, and Leonard D. Wood, violinist, in a program of music; while Mrs. David A. Wilcox, chairman of the dramatic committee, has arranged for a twenty-minute sketch. It is entitled "A Sunny Morning," written by Serafin and Joaquin Alvarez Quintero, and will be acted by Mrs. George N. Moody, Mrs. Ralph W. Loud, Mrs. George Bailey and Mrs. A. Warren Rutherford.

Refreshments will be served by the social committee, Mrs. Horace W. Peirce, chairman, while there will be a flower display by the Arlington Garden Club in the corridors. The meeting will be at 2:15 instead of 2:30 p. m., the usual time.

Scene of Fatal Columbus Blast

Above are two views of the new $6,000,000 State office building at Columbus, Ohio, after a mysterious explosion had wrought terrific damage, killing five persons and wounding 57. The cause of the blast is shrouded in mystery, since no gas piping had yet been installed in the building. Top photo shows some of the huge marble slabs, comprising the face of the building, which were hurled into the air by the violence of the blast. Lower photo shows firemen searching the ruins for victims.

COLORFUL MILITARY BALL TO CLIMAX PATRIOTS' DAY CELEBRATION HERE

Arlington Post No. 39 of the American Legion has completed plans for its Annual Colonial Military Ball which will bring to a gala close the town's celebration of Patriots' Day tomorrow evening with a concert by Karle Rhode's dance orchestra from eight o'clock until one a. m. The ball this year promises to be more largely attended than ever. The grand march will take place at ten o'clock.

During the concert, Walter Carl, pianist for the orchestra will give a special piano solo and a dancing specialty will also be offered as an added feature. The grand march, enlivened by military uniforms and colonial costumes worn by the ladies, will be one of the most colorful spectacles ever seen at the town hall.

In commemoration of the George Washington Bicentennial, the Post has prepared a special attraction which is expected to cause considerable favorable comment. It will be an entirely original feature of the annual ball, consisting of a tableau depicting an important episode in the life of George Washington. The tableau is based on a painting by Gilbert Stuart and all characters will naturally appear in elaborate colonial costumes for the reproduction of the famous painting. No effort has been spared to make this tableau an outstanding feature.

The list of patrons and patronesses invited to the ball includes the names of several prominent officials and residents of Arlington. It follows: Major General and Mrs. Walter E. Lombard, Hon. James P. Parmenter, Mrs. J. Q. A. Brackett, Hon. and Mrs. John G. Brackett, Miss Grace Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus E. Dallin, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ernest Moore, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Homer, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson B. Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Warren, Miss E. Caroline Pierce, Chief and Mrs. Daniel B. Tierney, Chief and Mrs. Warren A. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Wundelich, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene R. Vinal, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Muller, Mr. and Mrs. Horatio A. Phinney, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wellington.

The committee in charge of the ball is made up of the following Legionnaires: Warren E. Fifield, chairman; David A. Wilcox, Harry E. Woods, Edward Miller, J. J. Murphy, David Keefe, Fred B. Fallon, William R. Purrier, Frank M. Harwood, Fred L. Reynolds, Clement J. Beaudet, Frank W. Fitzpatrick, William J. Carroll.

FINAL PLANS MADE FOR CELEBRATION OF HOLIDAY TOMORROW

Exeter Downs Arlington High Tennis Players

Arlington High Tennis team journeyed to Exeter Academy, in New Hampshire last Saturday to be disastrously defeated by the Prep school team. Coach Ray Burke's recruit welders were able to snare only one point to their opponents' eight. Joe Higgins, the only Arlington man to win, won by a small margin. The fact that the Arlington team had no practice outside of that obtained in the High School Gym, told heavily against the more practiced, and more experienced Prep school players. Lawson of Exeter started for that team, while Higgins was the star of the Arlington team. Final score 8 to 1. The summary:

SINGLES
Lawson, Exeter, defeated Lane, 6-1, 6-1; Higgins, Arlington, defeated Negley, 6-4, 8-6; Glidden, Exeter, defeated Shean, 6-1, 6-2; Jones, Exeter, defeated Carroll, 6-2, 6-2; Bentley, Exeter, defeated Maloon, 6-0, 6-2; Marx, Exeter, defeated Shaw, 6-1, 6-0.

DOUBLES
Lawson and Negley, Exeter, defeated Shean and Lane, 6-1, 2-6, 6-0; Glidden and Jones, Exeter, defeated Higgins and Carroll, 6-1, 6-1; Whitman and Thornton, Exeter, defeated Shaw and Maloon, 6-0, 6-0.

Arlington Parade To Be Outstanding Feature — Riders Impersonating Paul Revere and William Daves, Jr., To Be Given Reception At Town Hall Shortly Before Noon — New American Legion Band To Give Concert — Colonial Ball To Close Celebration

Arlington is again prepared to give a rousing welcome to the modern Paul Revere and William Daves, Jr., as they ride through the town tomorrow in commemoration of the historical ride from North Square in Boston and Elliot Square in Roxbury to Lexington Green. The riders are expected at the Town Hall about 11:35 tomorrow noon when a reception will be given them by town officials and Francis Gould post No. 36 of the G. A. R., as well as the Menotomy Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Although this year's celebration will be somewhat curtailed in Arlington because of the fact that the money usually appropriated for the affair was cut down at the annual town meeting, the day will nevertheless be fittingly celebrated. The Patriots' Day program will start at nine o'clock with flag raising exercises, at Robbins Memorial Town Hall, by the Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops of the town. Those present at these exercises will pledge allegiance to the flag. This will be followed by the customary Patriots' Day parade which is scheduled to get under way at 9:30 tomorrow morning. The program follows:

Parade of Veterans, Ladies Auxiliaries, and Girl Scouts starts from Lockland avenue, parading over the following route, viz: Massachusetts avenue to Pleasant street. At Pleasant street burial ground a salute will be fired at the monument to the Soldiers of the American Revolution and an address made by Rev. John Nicol Mark, Chaplain of Post 39, American Legion. Following the sounding of Taps by buglers of the Girl Scouts the column will proceed down Broadway, through Foster street to Massachusetts avenue returning to Robbins Memorial Town Hall where it will be reviewed by town officials and their guests.

From eleven o'clock until twelve noon, the newly-organized Arlington American Legion post band will give a concert on the steps of Robbins Memorial Hall while the gathering is waiting for the riders impersonating Paul Revere and William Daves, Jr.

According to officials' plans after the rider impersonating Daves leaves Elliot square in Roxbury he will pass through Brookline and be received with ceremonies at the historic Devotion House on Harvard street, then proceed through Brighton and Allston to Cambridge, where the local committee will speed him on his way along Massachusetts avenue to Arlington.

The rider impersonating Revere, with escort, after leaving North square will proceed through Charlestown to Somerville for local reception exercises and then to Medford, where the two riders meet at the Town Hall, in which the local committee extends courtesies. From Arlington the two riders proceed by way of Massachusetts avenue to Lexington Green.

At twelve noon, the fire whistle will blow 1-7-7-5 in commemoration of the historical ride of Revere and Daves.

Every available member of the Arlington police department has been assigned to special duty by Police Chief Archie F. Bullock in order to avoid congestion along the route of the parade, and on Massachusetts avenue opposite the Town Hall, during the ceremony.

American Legion post members are urged to report at the Legion headquarters for the parade tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock.

Several patriotic organizations with bands and drum corps will be in the parade, the order of which is as follows:

Chief Marshal, Maj.-Gen. Walter E. Lombard and Staff; Band; Corp. Wm. Power Kenibbs Camp No. 66, U. S. W. V.; Arlington Post No. 39, American Legion; W. P. Boy Scouts Drum Corps; Women's Relief Corps of Post 36, G. A. R.; Daughters of Union Veterans of Post 36, G. A. R.; Corp. Wm. Power Kenibbs Camp Auxiliary No. 67, U. S. W. V.; Ladies Auxiliary of Post No. 39, American Legion; Ladies Auxiliary of Post 1775, U. S. W. V.; Camp No. 45, Sons of Union Veterans; Girl Scouts Drum Corps, Arlington Girl Scouts.

All veterans of the Spanish-American War residing in Arlington and vicinity are invited to parade with Corp. Wm. Power Kenibbs Camp No. 66.

Arlington will bring its celebration of Patriots' Day to a fitting climax with a grand military and colonial ball in Robbins Memorial Town Hall tomorrow evening. The affair is in charge of the Arlington American Legion post No. 39.

ARTHUR WYMAN TO BE "LEADING LADY" IN LOCAL BENEFIT SHOW

Lively music, locally tinged humor, dancing and other unique features provided entirely by talent from Arlington will score a big hit in the presentation of "The Dream of a Clown." This all male extravaganza in which seventy of our prominent men participate will be staged next Friday and Saturday nights in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, for the benefit of the Girl Scouts.

Arthur Wyman is to act as the charming bride while Rufus Blake will be her weeping mother and William Bolt as the distracted but comforting father. Plans for the affair are most elaborate. Madam Schumann-Heink (Arthur Sampson) will include Arlington in her concert tour which will provide an unusual treat. Then there will be a Spanish Senorita (Charles Dockrill) who will favor with a solo and dance. There will also be Dutch dancers (Roscoe Perry and John Matthews) not to mention Pres. Hoover (Rev. Lawrence Barber) and Mrs. Hoover (Parker Webb) will grace the show with their presence.

Franklin Hawkes singing the baby (Dr. Harold Webb) to sleep promises to be quite a meadow lark.

Miss 1932, impersonated by Walter Chamberlain, will no doubt be a big hit as a fascinating girlish and prettily winsome blond. He with the Prince of Wales (Jack Berry) will entertain with a most clever exhibition of dancing.

Ernest Hesseltine, Sr., as grandfather McCarthy and Norval Bacon as grandmother will make a darling ole couple. It is even rumored that grandpa tries to do a little "steppin' out" with some of the captivating flappers much to the disdain of grandma.

Alfred E. Smith (Herman Gammons) and Mrs. Smith (Fred Lowe) will be among the guests at the festivities. Needless to state that the brown derby will be in great evidence.

That clown, Fred Hill does snore! They don't stop on the stage—they will be all over town.

Arlington police officers drew lots for their summer vacation at police headquarters last night. The vacation period will run from May 1 to November 1 and some officers are highly pleased with their drawing while others who had anticipated a July vacation in the mountains or at a beach will now have to alter their plans and look forward to a jolly good time "fishing on the ice" next October. However, all are good sports and the matter of vacations is certain to be arranged satisfactorily among the boys. The schedule of vacations is not definite as yet.

Belmont Police Seek Daring Hold-Up Men

The Belmont police is running down clues which might lead to the arrest of the armed men responsible for the holdup of Julius Toupin, manager of the Belmont Drug Company last Friday night. The manager handed the armed intruders over $25.00 and they made a quick exit to a waiting roadster. The store is located at Vincent avenue and Belmont street. His home is at 49 Vincent avenue, Belmont.

Toupin was held up on a previous occasion at which time he threw a bottle at the thieves and escaped being struck by a bullet by mere inches.

Three Cars In Accident Here This Morning

Three cars were involved in a crash at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Mill street, Arlington this morning at 8 o'clock. A sedan owned by Frank Harvey, 279 Center street, Dorchester was damaged considerably. No one was injured.

Harvey's car operated by David T. Fenner of the same address was struck by a car owned by Paul Sindoni, 11 Holbrook road, Arlington, as the latter's car was coming out of Mill street. Harvey's sedan then bounced back and struck an automobile coach, owned by Ralph Perkins, of 23 Crawford street, Arlington. The latter car was parked at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Mill street at the time.

BICENTENNIAL BOARD OFFERS SUGGESTION FOR COLONIAL GARDENS

In contemplating Colonial gardens one's mind goes first, particularly this year, to the stately old gardens of Virginia. Each spring the Garden Clubs of Virginia hold open house and visitors are permitted to peep into these entrancing old enclosures, to traverse the gravelled walks and brick paths between the trim hedge rows and fragrant flower beds, so redolent with romance and sentiment. It is easy to imagine the beauties and gallants of Colonial Days strolling in these charming surroundings, and at Mount Vernon particularly, one can pause for a moment and actually seem to hear the laughter of bygone days.

Various flowers have enjoyed chief vogue in one period or another through American history. In lists of plants found in the earliest gardens, one finds them under the various heads of "vegetable garden," "herb or physic garden," and plants designated "for pleasure." These, of course, included plants which had colorful and fragrant flowers and added to the beauty of the scenery.

Among the old time flowers which may be planted in Colonial Gardens this year in celebration of the George Washington Bicentennial according to the United States George Washington Bicentennial Board are:

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR JOINT MEETING TO BE MADE TONIGHT

The board of governors of the Medford Improvement association, will meet this evening with the members of the executive committee of the Medford Hillside Men's club, to complete arrangements for the joint meeting Friday evening at the Hillside Men's club.

A fine program is in preparation. Harry McNear president of the Hillside organization will welcome the members of the Improvement association and Joseph Merenda one of the original founders of the Improvement association will reply in behalf of his association. Prof. Samuel Connor of Tufts will make an address and Charles T. Daly, president of the Medford Chamber of Commerce and Joseph J. Laurie will talk on subjects of interest to both organizations. Prof. George S. Miller will be the principal speaker of the evening. It is expected that Tee-Em-See of the Medford Daily Mercury will show pictures of old Medford, which will illustrate the changes wrought in the city in the last half century.

Final details will be completed this evening and invitations will be sent to all organizations interested in civic betterment of the city, and arrangements are being made to seat a large number of guests.

An open forum will probably be held at the close of the meeting at which time problems affecting the welfare of the various communities in which all organizations have an interest, will be discussed.

Charles A. Cooper and Joseph Fisher are acting as a committee on arrangements for the Improvement association.

Warns Of Dangers

Of Holiday Traffic

Thirteen persons were killed by automobiles during the week of April 8 to 15, which is five more than in the previous week and four less than in the corresponding period one year ago. Seven of the victims were pedestrians, six were occupants of motor vehicles and two were children.

Commenting on the record, Registrar of Motor Vehicles Morgan T. Ryan said: "At this season every year the accident curve takes an upward turn, and the annual tide of auto deaths begins to rise, although there are approximately 45,000 less cars on our Massachusetts roads today than were in use at this time a year ago, the fatality list is but little better. The warning and instruction of school children probably accounts for the drop of four deaths in their class."

"Another boy lost his life trying to jump onto the side of a heavy moving truck. Among the pedestrians one died when a United States truck was backed carelessly or too fast into its parking space. Several others were run down while attempting to cross the street. One woman was the victim of a wild driver, who cut a left-hand corner so recklessly as to go up on the sidewalk to do his killing."

Three fatal accidents occurred on bridges, two operators, were committing autoicide, and one striking down a pedestrian. Another young operator was trying to make his get-away with a stolen car. A professional aviator, who apparently thought he could fly an auto as well as an airplane, plunged through a bridge-railing to his death. In all these cases as usual the principal factor was reckless, high speed.

"Once more, therefore, I appeal to our motorists, especially over the Patriots' Day holiday, to drive at moderate and reasonable speeds. During the holiday last year, including the night before and the morning after, there were seven persons killed in auto accidents. Mr. Motorist: Think it over."

Fifty-eight were convicted last week of operating while under the influence of liquor, 6 less than in the preceding week. Five were committed to jail, all from district courts.

Five persons were convicted for the second time within six years in district courts of operating while under the influence of liquor. Three were given jail sentences and appealed, and two were committed to jail.

There were 1533 licenses and registrations suspended or revoked last week, 376 more than in the week before and 487 more than in the same period last year. Of these, 78 were for driving after drinking intoxicating liquor, and 1126 on account of insurance cancellations.

Open House To Be Held By Tufts Engineering School

The twenty-ninth annual open house conducted by the Tufts College Engineering School will be held this year on Friday evening, from 7.30 to 10.00 o'clock. Each of the departments of the School—Civil, Mechanical, Electrical, and Chemical—will be open for inspection to friends, graduates, and prospective students. The new Physical Education Building may also be inspected by the visitors during the evening. Guides will be stationed at each of the buildings to explain the work that is done in the various departments and to conduct guests to such features as may be of special interest.

The attendance last year was well over a thousand and included many graduates who were accompanied by high school students anxious to see the facilities for instruction in engineering at Tufts. The work done in several departmental courses in Civil Engineering will be illustrated by students at work on drawings and designs assigned as a part of the regular work of courses. In transportation, structural and sanitary engineering. The room will be in charge of Professor Robinson Abbott. The work of this department will be further demonstrated in its various laboratories. Students will be at work in the Strength of Materials and Highway Engineering Laboratories under the direction of Professors F. N. Weaver, C. L. and R. W. Lefavour. Considerable new equipment has been added in the Highway Engineering Laboratory and one piece of particular interest is a new machine, developed and built by Professor Lefavour, for making ductility tests of asphalt cements.

The Hydraulics Laboratories will also feature students engaged in regular laboratory exercises. An exhibit which is certain to attract considerable attention in the Mechanical Engineering Laboratory is the smallest eight cylinder passenger carrying automobile in the world. Two senior students, Reginald C. Geer, Tufts College, and Harold C. Hatch, Winchester, working under the direction of Professor W. C. Casson, C.24, have redesigned and rebuilt the power plant in his Austin car and will have it on exhibition in the laboratory. A complete household power unit for a single house which supplies heat, light, and all power needs for a single house will be demonstrated by Mr. C. W. Deet, '32, Cambridge, who with Professor Casson is responsible for both its design and construction. Messrs. Luther M. Child, West Medford, Thorburn Kennedy, Malden, and Walter N. Ober, Lynnfield, of the senior class, are designing and building a glider which will be taken to Cape Cod for the annual glider tests later in the semester. A number of changes and improvements in the foundry have been made by Mr. Ralph A. Smith, instructor in charge. The foundry will be in operation, with students at work. Professor R. U. Fittz, C.15, will have charge of an interesting exhibition of refrigeration equipment in Room 8, Robinson Hall.

The laboratories of the Electrical Engineering Department in Robinson Hall will be open for inspection with Professor E. B. Rollins, C.91, M. S. Munro, C.94, and J. A. Reynolds, C.10, in charge. Mr. W. H. Ballou, C.31, will have an exhibition of television at the Electro-Technical Laboratory.

Of special interest will be the exhibits at the Chemical Laboratory on Talbot Avenue. Scattered through the four floors of this modern laboratory will be found the standard equipment necessary for the proper execution of chemical investigations. A wide range of experimental work in analytical, organic, industrial, metallurgical, and physical chemistry will be in progress, and research as carried on by undergraduates and graduate students and instructors will be in evidence. Dr. Frank W. Durkee, C.88, and Professor Crosby F. Baker, C.10, will be in charge.

Another feature of the evening will be the exhibition of the Model Stage at the Dramatic workshop under the direction of a member of the lighting staff. A new transformer has been added making a great improvement over last year. Problems of lighting and color will be demonstrated, and prize posters of the last four years will be displayed. Professor W. The New York Alumni club of Tufts college has officially established its headquarters at the Hotel Tufts, adjoining the Roxy theatre, New York city, and already it is becoming the center of Tufts college activities in that city. The recent banquet of New York alumni was held in the grill room of the hotel. Hon. Stanley C. Wilson, governor of Vermont, was the guest of honor, and the alumni secretary, Joseph W. Morton, was included in the list of guests. Harry A. Burt, a Tufts graduate of the class of '16, who resides at the hotel, is resident secretary of the club. He has desk room in the office of N. A. Tufts, executive officer of the hotel, who is cooperating to give to Tufts men the best possible service. The headquarters of alumni of Colgate university has been established at the Tufts ever since the advent of Mr. Tufts at that hotel.

Three To One For Dry Law's Appeal

Early returns from the National Liberal Alliance prohibition poll of New England states indicate a heavy endorsement, practically three to one, in favor of repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and modification of the Volstead Act. Although the post card ballots are direct to senators and representatives in Washington as well as to the national political committees, enough cards have been received at the headquarters of the Alliance in Boston to show the preponderance of the wet vote.

Francis Clay Harley, chairman of the Alliance, points out that among the hundreds of ballots being registered daily many ardent drys from the various New England states indicate that they favor a referendum on the prohibition question, although at the present time they are opposed to either repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, or modification of the Volstead Act.

Senators and representatives in Washington report that they are receiving a large number of post card ballots from their constituents. Almost without exception, senators and representatives from the New England states have gone on record as being heartily in favor of this unique poll on the prohibition question. Senator Marcus A. Coolidge of Massachusetts wrote the Alliance: "Please be advised that I trust the information which you are obtaining will serve its purpose and bring enlightenment to members of Congress as to the true conditions relative to prohibition. I have already received a large number of postcards from constituents in Massachusetts giving their views on this all important subject."

Congressman John W. McCormack of the twelfth Massachusetts district, an ardent wet, wrote Chairman Harley: "I consider the program that you have in mind a very excellent one, and I want to congratulate you and your organization. I will look forward to receiving the views of the people of my district on this matter. I want to again congratulate you and your organization upon performing such a public duty and I hope the people in my district who receive a card from you will communicate to me their views."

Law Bearing On Smoking In Autos

Commissioner of Conservation, William A. L. Bazeley Division of Forestry of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts states that during the past year more than 500 forest fires were caused by the people who traveled on our highways through the careless use of smoking material. Such criminal carelessness should be carefully checked.

As the season is near at hand when our highways will be thronged by people seeking enjoyment by driving into the country it is imperative that a note of warning should be sounded to everybody urging the practice of the greatest care and intelligence with respect to fire. By heeding such warning one is not only aiding in the protection of the scenic beauty of our Commonwealth but may be saving himself much trouble and inconvenience.

For those who are unfamiliar with the law bearing on the subject it is here quoted: "Whoever drops or throws from any vehicle while the same is upon a public or private way running along or near forest land, or except as permitted by law, drops, throws, deposits or otherwise places in or upon forest land, any lighted cigarette, cigar, match, live ashes or other flaming or glowing substance, or any substance which in and of itself is likely to cause a fire, shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars."

Symphony Player Discusses Case And Is Assessed $5

Paul Cherkosky of Boston, who told the court that he was a violinist in the Boston Symphony orchestra, was fined $5 for speeding on the Turnpike at court, after he had discussed the case for some ten minutes from the witness stand. He denied any such speed and thought that some police officers were very discourteous in this country. He said he was driving slowly, having just returned from New York and was saying to his wife that the landscape was beautiful and the countryside was grand. He wanted it understood that he was watching his wheel and the car was in full control all the time.

He denied that he said he would see Mr. Wiggins to fix the case, stating that he told his wife that he would have to see Mr. Bentley Warren about the matter, because Mr. Warren was the head of Symphony. He admitted that the officers finally told him what the charge was, also explained that he was speeding. He said he had been driving since 1925 and that no police officers ever held him up before. The court ordered the $5 fine thinking that he had talked that much money's worth.

For Tippy Driving

Garrett H. Keefe, Dorchester, drunk and operating, Middlesex, Fells, fined $10 and $50 and given time to pay, Richard E. Jameson, Medford, same offense, on complaint of the Metropolitan police, had the drunk charge filed and was fined $25 for operating on the presentation by the police that he had a large family and received very small pay. Lorne H. Read, Allston, drunk and operating, Metropolitan police, fined $10 and $50, and Warren J. Malone, Brighton, drunk, operating second offense, and operating after revocation, appealing fines of $10 for drunk; $50 for operating after revocation and one month in the house of correction for second offense. Tippy driving. He furnished an appeal bond.

Philip Cassell, Melrose, drunk, suspended term to the State farm. He was given a 15 days suspended term on Monday for drunk in Malden, and this was made operative.

John Palumbo, Somerville, thru way, Middlesex Fells, fined $5; William Machel, Everett, same offense, Malden, continued a week; Frank E. Middleton, Dorchester, motor running, Malden, fined $5; John J. Torpey, Ipswich, speeding, Malden, fined $5.

Fines of $5 were imposed on the following for driving trucks on prohibited streets in Medford: Harry D. Buchanan, Arlington; Prentiss L. Polley, Somerville; Alfred J. Nicholi, Somerville; Harry J. Gratton, Medford, and Charles S. Gallaway, Lynn. Charles Semeter, passing street car on the left in Medford, was fined $10. Clarence K. Ross, Somerville, unsafe operation of auto, four in a seat, Malden, fined $5.

James Minnahan, Somerville, failure to slow down, Everett, was fined $5; John E. McKenna, Wilmington, commercial vehicles on Parkway, continued a week; James E. O'Donnell, Melrose, parking in a motor coach stop, Malden, fined $5.

Rufus M. Snowden, Everett, larceny of gas from the Malden & Melrose Gas Co., represented by Atty. F. E. Spear, and the case was placed on file, on the payment immediately of $25 as restitution. Mr. Spear left his check for that amount.

Chester C. Carnes, Everett, no parking light, Everett, was fined $5; John J. Crowley, Medford, failure to slow down, Medford, continued to the 25th, Albert V. Hurley, Everett, drunk and operating, Everett, continued to the 25th; Joseph A. Pettie, Medford, motor running in Malden, on file; Eleanor Vietri, Everett, shoplifting, Everett, on file; John W. FROM Xanthi and Cavalla . . . Smyrna and Samsoun . . . the finest Turkish tobaccos travel 4,000 miles to add flavor and fragrance to CHESTERFIELD.

for better taste

CIGARETTE smokers owe a lot to Turkish tobacco, for it was cigarettes made out of Turkish tobacco that first became the vogue in this country.

Then it was found that a blend of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos was better than either kind of tobacco straight. It takes just the right amount of the right kind of Turkish tobacco to give a cigarette better taste. For Turkish tobacco is to cigarettes what seasoning is to food—the spice—the sauce. You want enough but not too much.

There is just enough Turkish in CHESTERFIELDS to give them a better flavor, a more pleasing aroma; to make them taste better.

Turkish tobacco must pay an import duty of 35c a pound; but cost doesn't count when it comes to making CHESTERFIELD the best cigarette that science and money can produce.

THEY'RE Milder THEY TASTE BETTER

TURKISH tobacco is strong leaf-by-leaf and hung in long strands to dry and cure in the sun. In every important tobacco-growing center of Turkey, CHESTERFIELD has its own tobacco buyers.

Spring is here! How do we know? Read on!

We happened during the past week to wander around in the canyons of the large city, designated as the "Hub", and noted a crowd in front of a store window. Curiosity impelled us to find out what caused this gathering, and we worked our way in close, and found it was a sporting goods store. On display were all kinds of paraphernalia used by fishermen: poles, flies, lines, hooks, creels, and everything which a disciple of Izaak Walton would wish.

In the crowd were many varied conditions; men who could purchase any of the things on display without a thought of cost; others to whom the smallest item would mean a sacrifice—and yet—all seemed to be members of the great brotherhood, who succumb to the lure of the rushing brook and the silver pool, the wide spread meadows where in the winding stream speckled beauties hide beneath the overhanging banks. Yes—it is Spring!

Before that window, stood men to whom display brought memories. Memories of barefoot boyhood days, when armed with an alder switch and a can of worms, they crawled carefully, so as not to frighten the shy fish, and skillfully cast their line into the ripples and then when the hungry trout snatched at the bait with a rush, jerked them to the bank and gloated as the prized flopper upon the mossy bank.

Men who had fished for a Tuna button prize, at Catalina Islands, for Tarpon off the Florida Keys; in the wide waters of the Canadian rivers, brushed elbows with those to whom the babbling of the brook was but a memory. Drowned out by the roar of the city streets. What memories that display of tackle awakened—how they would rejoice if it were possible to revisit scenes of boyhood days when in the early morn, they trod through the deep lush grass of the early summer, providing they could get off from the set chores of the farm, they waded through the shallow waters of the wandering brook and cast in the pools beneath the overhanging trees or by a stranded log, and succeeded in getting a string, and came back triumphantly to dangle the catch before the eyes of their envious boy friend and neighbors.

Perhaps—those to whom the gleaming waters of the Gulf, the far reaches of the Wisconsin lakes, and the places where the silvery salmon and wily bass abounded were not unknown also had memories—

Yes! it is Spring—Have you got your fishing license yet?

Civics And Independents Open Medford's Amateur Ball Season

The amateur baseball season in Medford will begin tomorrow afternoon on Summer Street playground when the Civic Club and Independents meet.

This game is the only traction here for the holiday afternoon and it is expected that a large throng will turn out. It will get under way shortly after three o'clock and those who wish to take in the Marathon finish will be able to get back by the start of the first inning.

One of the features of this game will be the appearance of three brothers. Tom Faucette will be at short stop for the Civics and John will cover first. Pat of the clan of Faucette will hold down third for the Independents.

First Division Teams
Both teams finished in the first division in both halves of the Medford City League and appear equally as strong as last season.

In the starting Civic Club lineup there are five City League .300 hitters, Walter Rogers, Johnny Glanino, Hiker Mobilia, Tom Faucette and Captain John McCullough. The Independents have four, Will and Fleet Colclough, Pat Faucette and Siggie Somy.

Somy, star hurler for Medford High last spring who played with the Norton Club during the summer, comes to the Independents via the free transfer rule in effect until the new listing of players in the league at next Friday's meeting. He has had several practice workouts and is confident that he can step to the hill and mow down the opposing batsmen in 1931 fashion. Should Somy weaken Bob Hudson, Medford High Junior, a lanky lad with speed to spare, will relieve him.

Another former Blue and White ace, Art Leavitt, will see the mound for the Civics and attempt to get his southpaw shoots by the Independents' stick welders. Leavitt will hurl the first half of the game and will then be relieved by Joe Doherty.

Lineups Changed Little
The lineups of both teams are practically the same as last season. Sal Capozzi is the only new addition to the Civic Club. He played with the Caticus Club, Winn and Somy were with the Norton Club last season and Wendall played with the Medford and Beverly Twj leagues.

It will be interesting to compare the qualities of the rival outfields, both of which shape up as good as any in the City League. Will Colclough is a great all-round man and one handy when swinging the willow in a pinch. Bobby Winn and Deacon Donahue are average hitters but their speed helps them to beat out several infield whacks and also to smother flies wallowed in the far outfield.

The Civic garden trio has speed and batting ability. Capozzi doesn't hit as frequently as Mobilia and Rogers but when he does connect the arate takes an unmerciful pounding. He generally comes through in critical moments.

ATT: MPTED BREAK

There was an attempted break at the fish market at 477 Fulton street early this morning, discovered by police. The glass in a door had been broken and entrance gained to the cellar but not to the store. Nothing was reported taken. The owner of the property was notified.

Mary Carew Places In Three Events At Boston "Y" Meet

Medford Girls' Club Ace Places Third In National Junior Broad Jump Championship In Which Dorothy Lyford Sets Up New World Mark—Mary Wins 40-Yard Dash With Two Teammates Second and Third—Places Second In Broad Jump

Mary Carew, diminutive leader of the Medford Girls' Club who already holds championships in the national indoor and outdoor dashes and the New England indoor for the same distance, came close to annexing another title on Saturday night when she placed second in the national junior broad jump event in the meet held at the Boston Y. M. C. A.

Mary jumped a fraction over 8 feet but it so happened that Dorothy Lyford, 14-year miss of the Boston Swimming Association and Spencer, Mass., was at her best of the year and that young lady, on her last try, established a new world record of 8 feet 6 3/16 inches for the event. Marie Stokes colored flash of the Ontario Club of Malden edged Mary for second place also on her last attempt.

Prior to the performance of the Spencer girl the record was held by Miss Holliday of Great Britain, 8 feet 5 1/2 inches, who set up the mark in 1927 and Miss Stokes who equaled it last year. The best American record senior record was previously held by Katherine (Mearl) Rogan of Connecticut, a former member of the Medford Club who was credited with 8 feet 3 3/4 inches.

Wins Dash

After her performance in the national broad jump the Medford girl turned about to win the feature running event, the 40-yard dash open, a scratch event. Her time was 5.25 seconds and she was chased to the finish line by two teammates, Helen McCarthy and Marie Wendt, having a three-yard lead over the former.

In the broad jump open, also won by Miss Lyford with a jump of 8 feet 4 inches, Mary placed second with Patricia O'Brien of the Boston Swimming Association third.

In the 40-yard dash novice Alice Alexander of the Medford Club, former junior national high jump champion, placed second in her heat and third in the first semi-final but did not rank among the first three in the final sprint. The event was won by Miriam Nelson of New Bedford.

Winifred Fennelly, another Medford Girls' Club entry, won the first heat of the 30-yard class C dash but failed to place in the final of that event.

Champions Crowned
Two other national junior champions were crowned. Marie Wegener of Winthrop established a new record of 35 feet 10 1/2 inches in the 8-round shot put. Helen Phillips of Melrose and the E. S. A. equaled the record of 4 feet 11 inches in the running high jump.

The proceeds of this meet go to ward the Olympic fund.

Jimmy Henigan, 1931 Winner, Outstanding of Medford Group To Start Grind From Hopkinton

North Medford Mates Confident Smiler Can Repeat and Earn Berth On Olympic Team—Johnny Kelley and Bill Malloy, Also of North Medford Club, Expected To Finish In Good Time, Near or Within Prize Number—West Medford Man Entered

Ten Medford boys, eight wearing the Orange and Black of the No. Medford club and two unattached, will await the start of the 36th annual B. A. A. marathon at Hopkinton tomorrow noon.

The North Medford entries and their numbers are: 2—Frank Scanton; 21—Johnny Kelley; 46—Paul Casano; 47—Jimmy Henigan; 71—Paul Martin; 102—Earl Collins; 135—Charlie Welch; 144—Fran McEneaney; 232—Bill Malloy. The other two are: 129—Hymie Sugerman of West Medford; 139—Eddie Tregory of Tufts College.

Grid Star to Run

Sugerman, an eleven last fall, has never run in an official distance run before as far as can be learned. Tregory first came to be known when he entered the recent North Medford Club 20-miler but he failed to finish in the first 25.

The entire North Medford Club will be out in full force rooting for Smiling Jimmy Henigan, 1931 winner, who is numbered among many favorites who will start over the long grind from Hopkinton to Boston, covering 26 miles and 385 yards.

Johnny Kelley, always a scratch man in the many ten-milers he enters, is expected to finish although it would be somewhat of a surprise if he rates one of the eight prize winners. Bill Malloy is another who seems sure to cross the finish line. He proved that he is good for more than ten miles when he finished third in the races sponsored by his own organization, showing the way to Henigan and Leslie Pawson, the winner, over the greater part of the last five miles.

Record Entry

The winner of this annual event will be selected to represent Uncle Sam in the Olympics late next summer. With this offer a record entry has been made, including the greatest of greats in hill and dale competition. Among them are Carl Linder, 1919 winner; Clarence DeMar, seven times the victor; Karl Koski and Bill Kennedy.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alcott W. Stockwell, 53 Auburn street, West Medford, spent the week-end in New York.
